YOUR RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES IN THE MAINE COMMODITY SUPPLEMENTAL FOOD PROGRAM (CSFP)

I AGREE TO:

- Provide proof of my income, address, and identification if requested.
- Give staff correct information about my current household and its income.
- Let staff know if my address, income or household composition changes or if I plan to move within 10 days.

I UNDERSTAND THAT:

- CSFP will provide supplemental foods.
- The CSFP local agency will provide information on other nutrition, health, or assistance programs, and make referrals as appropriate.
- The CSFP local agency will provide nutrition education to all program participants and will encourage participation.
- I will be dropped from this program if I participate in another CSFP.
- I have the right to appeal through the fair hearing process any decision made by the local agency regarding denial, disqualification, or termination from the program.
- If I do not pick up food 2 months in a row, without telling staff, I will be taken off the Program if there is a waiting list.
- I may be taken off the program if I sell or barter with CSFP foods.
- I may be taken off the program if I intentionally make false or misleading statements, orally or in writing.
- I may be taken off the program for intentionally withholding information pertaining to eligibility in CSFP.
- I may be taken off the program if I physically abuse or threaten to physically abuse program staff.
- Improper use or receipt of CSFP benefits because of dual participation or other program violations may lead to a claim against you to recover the value of the benefits. It may also lead to disqualification from CSFP.

In accordance with federal civil rights law and USDA civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its agencies, offices, employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age, marital status, family/parental status, income derived from a public assistance program, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity, in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA (not all bases apply to all programs). Remedies and complaint filing deadlines vary by program or incident.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.) should contact the state or local agency that administers the program or contact USDA through the Telecommunications Relay Service at 711 (voice and TTY). Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program discrimination complaint, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, AD-3027, found online at How to File a Program Discrimination Complaint and at any USDA office or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

1. mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
1400 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, D.C. 20250-9410; or
2. fax: (833) 256-1665 or (202) 690-7442; or
3. email: Program.Intake@usda.gov

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.

Partnerships with Faith-Based and Neighborhood Organizations Notice: Because CSFP is supported in whole or in part by financial assistance from the Federal Government, this organization is required to let you know that:

1. This organization may not discriminate against you on the basis of religion, a religious belief, a refusal to hold a religious belief, or a refusal to attend or participate in a religious practice;
2. This organization may not require you to attend or participate in any explicitly religious activities (including activities that involve overt religious content such as worship, religious instruction, or proselytization) that are offered by our organization, and any participation by you in such activities must be purely voluntary;
3. This organization must separate in time or location any privately funded explicitly religious activities (including activities that involve overt religious content such as worship, religious instruction, or proselytization) from activities supported with direct Federal financial assistance; and
4. You may report violations of these protections, including any denials of services or benefits by an organization, by contacting or filing a written complaint with the U.S. Department of Agriculture Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights Executive Director Center for Civil Rights Enforcement 1400 Independence Avenue SW Washington, DC 20250-9410, or by email to program.intake@usda.gov

If you would like information about other federally funded organizations providing these kinds of services in your area, please contact the USDA Hunger Hotline: 1-866-3-HUNGRY or 1-877-8-HAMBRE to speak with a representative from 7:00 AM – 10:00 PM or Text: 914-342-7744 with a question with keywords such as “food,” “summer,” “meals,” etc. to receive an automated response to resources located near an address and/or zip code. This written notice must be given to you before you enroll in the program or receive services from the program, unless the nature of the service provided or exigent circumstances make it impracticable to provide such notice before this organization provides the actual service. In such an instance, this notice must be given to you at the earliest available opportunity.
